WILLIAM BROMWELL

Planter, of "Bromwell" Calvert Co. Will 4 Dec. 1660. [Credited to Kent Co. by Baldwin, prob. an error in copying] The name is spelled in various records "Bromd," "Bromhall," "Brammale," etc. He came from Eng. 1651 with wife, 2 sons, 5 servants; [had anoth. serv't who left Eng. in the "Mary and Francis," ca. Oct. 1655, and arriv. in the Province foll. Jan.] He enters rights to land 20 Nov. 1657 and recd. patent for "Bromwell" (so spelled) on 20 Nov. 1658. (500 acres, running N.N.E. up the N. side of Huoting Creek, a tributary of Patuxent River, surveyed 22 July 1656, and re-surveyed for Richard, son and heir, in 1674.)

In his will he appoints his "well beloved neighbors, and true and trusty friends," Wm. Parrott and Wm. Turner, overseers, but the latter appears to have robbed the chil. of their estate.

= MARY

JACOB BROMWELL

Planter, Talbot Co.; name first appears in records as surety for admr. of John Paul est. 1728, and later for Wm. Bennet's admr. 1737. In 1739 buys lots in Oxf. of Wm. Combes, and the lot next this of David Robinson in 1742; after litigation acquires "Ander-ton" of Henry Lowe, sells "Poplar Hill" and "Turbut's Field," and buys "Cove Hall" and "Fort Venture" in 1743-52 of Jno. Bennet. In 1750 his name is in list as "Annual Benefactor" of the Charity School, Oxf. with 25 others of Talb. Co.; this sch. was the forerunner of an Academy. In 1756 he buys "Wintersell," 200 acres, of Henry Lowe, which made litigation for almost a century for the desc'nts. (W. side Island Creek.) In same year he buys the Chapel ground, Oxf. of Vincent Lowe.

He d. 1757; will 15 Sep. (li. 30 B T. no. 2, pp. 412-13-14, Land Rec. Off. Annapolis,) John Sherwood III and Robert Bromwell sureties in sum 3,000 pounds sterling, (Test. Proc. Md. 36 p. 443.)

MARY

Legacy from husb. 1757 of negro servants "Sambo," "Debb" and "Lucy." She frees "Deborah" in 1782, Talbot Co., and in 1785, then a resident of Dorch. Co. deeds negroes "Rachel" and "Peter" to her son John, who, in 1790 gives them to his brother Edward; in this year she frees "Levin" and "David;" in 1794 she lives in Talb. Co., and makes deed of gift of negroes "Jim," and "Lucy" to her "loving grand daughter Spicie Bromwell." (dau. of Spedding Bromwell.)
